SUBARA HEADS ANTI-TITO CLIQUE -- Nova Borba, No 21, 7 Sep 49

Gunfire of the Partisans can again be heard in the Papuk Mountains. This time, the guns are aimed against the fascist clique of Tito and Rankovic.

At the head of the anti-Tito Partisan groups now in the Papuks is Yugoslav Army Major B. Miodjevic-Subara. Because of his heroism, his name became very popular during the People's Liberation War in Slavonia. Commander of the Osijek detachment during the last war, he operated with his detachment in the most difficult terrain of Slavonia, the plains near Osijek and Djakovo.

Subara has always been known for his affection for the Soviet Union, which became greater during his residence in the USSR, where he underwent military training.

The first engagement of Subara and his group with Tito's men took place in the village of Bobota near Osijek. Tito's authorities were at that time stealing pigs in the villages near Osijek. They were especially merciless and severe toward the poor farmers. The opposition put up by the poor peasants was smashed by the most drastic terrorist measures. Subara's father, who had three officer sons in the Yugoslav Army, died from a bullet fired by a UDB man. Subara, who was then in Bobota, and who had already made all preparations with his comrades for open and armed resistance, made an attack and killed several of Tito's men on the Local People's Council of Bobota.

Since then he has been fighting continuously with his men against Tito's men in the Papuk sector of Slavonia.

TERROR IN BELGRADE GROWS -- Nova Borba, No 21, 7 Sep 49

The present situation in Belgrade is such that a person can disappear and never reappear. This has happened to thousands of the best comrades and nothing else is known about them.

STAT

Comrade Kovacevic, director of the Asbestos Administration, an old party member and participant in the People's Liberation War, has been arrested, as were thousands of others. The entire management at the soda factory in Lukavac, including the director, has been arrested and replaced by new personnel. The worker who took the place of the director was arrested a month later because he publicly condemned the Tito-Rankovic clique. There are concentration camps for Cominformists throughout Yugoslavia. There are at least four in Belgrade alone: near "Mostar," on the Ada Ciganlija, on the Cukarica, and on the Sajmist. The camps are surrounded by barbed wire and there are guard posts with machine guns at every corner.
